Drag Race FAQ's

Q) Does my car have to have a tech inspection if I am just doing time trials?

A) Yes, any car going down the track must have a tech inspection.

Q) What happens if I miss a class call-up during eliminations?

A) You're disqualified as a no-show. Your opponent gets a bye run.

Q) Can show car participants make time trial passes?

A) Yes, register for the Time Only Class, which has a separate entry fee.

Q) Do I need a helmet to race?

A) Any driver whose vehicle goes faster than 13.99 is required to have a helmet.

Q) What is the policy for large race class participation?

A) If a class has over 150 qualified participants who make the call for the first round of eliminations, that class will pay back to the eights round an amount equal to the entry fee of that class.

CAR SHOW FAQ'S

Q) Can I bring my MuscleCar to the event and display it and not have it judged?

A) Yes, just pre-register the vehicle for the Fun Field for $49.99. For the Fun Field, you can drive your MuscleCar in and park in a specified parking area. Entry Includes the Car and Driver.

Q) If my car show class has over 15 participants, will it be split?

A) Yes, it will be split into brands, such as Plymouth, Dodge, Chrysler, and so on.

Q) What if my car is the only car in its class?

A) You will be given the option by the Judging Staff to combine your entry with others or be given the option to be display only. Single Entry entries will not automatically be granted an award because they are a lone entry for the categories.

Q) If I won the car show in previous years, can I still participate?

A) Yes.

Q) Can I run my generator on my RV at the event?

A) Yes, but it is your responsibility to have an exhaust hose or stack on your exhaust, or please be a good neighbor and move elsewhere.
